WARNING BY BRYAN

THE NEBRASKAN TELLS THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY TO GUARD AGAINST WALL STREET DOMI-NATION AND CANDIDATE.

(Herald Special.)

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 9.—In his Commoner today William Jennings Bryan warns the democratic party against Wall Street domination and a Wall Street candidate for the presidency in 1912. He says Wall Street promises the party victory, but it only means defeat in the next election. Bryan declares the party in the rank and file is more radical now than in 1894 or 1904, when it suffered its most disastrous defeats. The Commoner also calls on Champ Clark to load his guns for a fight on the Cannon rules in the house, and gives Clark credit for Cannon's overthrow in the last session.

MORE EGGS ARE SEIZED

Forty-Two Crates of Rotten Eggs Located By Government Authorities at Kansas City.

(Herald Special.)

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 9.—Forty-two crates of rotten eggs were seized here by the government authorities yesterday. The eggs seized are part of a car shipment sent out by a Dallas, Texas, firm. The eggs were ordered sealed and held as evidence when the cases came up for trial. By computation each of the eggs contains five hundred and forty-five billion germs.

sunaga, Boy Murderer.

able that Dr. A. L. Bennett, Japanese consul stationed in this city, will ask the Japanese ambassador at Washington to insist upon a retrial of the case against Genkyo Mitsunaga, a subject of the mikado, convicted last night of the murder of Mrs. Katherine Wilson by strangling her in her home here last May. The verdict was for murder in the first degree and a life sentence was imposed.

FOR DIRECT ELECTION

Of United States Senators Woodrow Wilson Bases His Political Future.

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 9.—Defying the machine that made his election as governor of the state possible, Woodrow Wilson today staked his political future and presidential possibilities on his respect for the New Jersey law providing for the popular election of United States senators. In doing so Wilson repudiates James Smith, Jr., the party machine leader and wealthy Newark banker.

MOORE IS ACQUITTED

DEFENDANT SET UP CLAIM OF UNWRITTEN LAW AFTER KILL-ING MAN WHO HAD ALIENATED HIS WIFE FROM HIM.

(Herald Special.)

Vincennes, Ind., Dec. 9.—Menlo Moore was today acquitted of the murder of Charles E. Gibson, the millionaire oil-operator. The verdict was not unexpected. Moore shot Gibson at the union depot here on October 3rd, after Mrs. Moore had confessed she had been intimate with the millionaire.

The acquittal of Moore was a direct victory for the "unwritten law," for that was the only plea Moore entered in his defense. Mrs. Moore swore that Gibson had long bothered her with his attentions and that she had repeatedly spurned him. She admitted to her husband, however, that she had been intimate with the man. A few days after the wife's confession Moore met Gibson and shot him to death.

HE WANTS MORE MONEY

Secretary Meyer Asks Congress to Give $1,500,000 to Complete New Battleship.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—Asserting that the present appropriation for building the battleship New York is insufficient under the eight-hour law, Secretary of the Navy George L. von Meyer has asked the house for $1-500,000 additional money. Labor members of the house assert that the secretary is raising the figures unreasonably simply to demonstrate that his policy of private yard building is the best.

ATTEMPT THWARTED

TO ASSASSINATE PRESIDENT DA-VILLA OF HONDURAS IN HIS OFFICIAL RESIDENCE—MATTER HAS BEEN MADE PUBLIC.

(Herald Special.)

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Dec. 9.— That an attempt to assassinate President Davilla last Wednesday was frustrated only in the nick of time and by quick action of the guards in the official residence, became known today. Details of the attack were closely guarded to avoid its revolutionary effect. A man representing himself to be a messenger from the Pacific coast was admitted to the president's private office. He drew a pistol but before he could use it he was felled by the personal guards. Following the exposure of the attempt on the president martial law was proclaimed.

The jails have been filled with rebels being detained by the troops.
